Lightweight Champion May Be Asked to Be the Third Man in the Ring for the Willard-Dempsey Fight

SUGGEST LEONARD REFEREE BIG BOUT

Lightweight Champion Up as Compromise Candidate at Toledo.

So Does Dempsey, but This Time Tate Manages to Keep His Footing.

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

Torgoo, June 24 .- After a day of rest Jem Willard this afternoon attacked his sparring partners with the greatest en-Hemple, Bill Scott, Joe Chip and Walter Monahan with vigor and uppercuts, but he seemed to be quite as well pleased when the quartet were pounding him in the body or face. Even when Scott unin-tentionally landed a low blow the champlon grinned and went on without a mur-

Willard seemed to be in high good humer and entirely satisfied with his condition and future prospects. The only thing that seemed to worry him was the fear that there would be empty seats in the arena.

"I can't fight well before empty benches," he said to Tex Rickard, "and I pe you will have them all filled before no vacant seats on the day of the was his twenty-fourth birthday, and looked as though the young man was trying to celebrate the event by handing another knockout punch to Bill Tate. Dempsey waited till the second round

Tate, who is big, strong and a good bexer, fills the bill in the matter of size, so that Dempsey is getting good practice and is familiarizing himself with all the estacles the champion may be ex-pected to throw in the way of the chal-lenger on July 4.

All of Dempsey's helpers practice pin-sing his right glove under the left arm, a habit that Willard has contracted and which Dempsey's trainers evidently think will be attempted by the champion. Dempsey apparently is perfecting a left for the body with a view of inducing the champion to release his clutch. That was the effect of the blow on the training staff.

Referee Squabble Unchanged.

The deadlock over the referee conters of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control are hopeful of a settlement within a few days, there is much unrest over the unfortunate tangle.

Conferences have been held all day, in which Mayor Schreiber, Rickard, and Gavin and Emple of the board and representatives of the Toledo A. C. have holked, b. 612 8 0 Cravath, ff. 522 participated. While Gavin thought there are disposition on the part of the obastructionists to take a fairer view of Wilson.c.. 301 4 10 Adams.c.. 403 the matter, he was not served on the part of the obastructionists to take a fairer view of Wilson.c.. 301 4 10 Adams.c.. 403 the matter, he was not sanguine of an early adjustment.

By way of compromise, the name of Benny Leonard, the lightweight cham-plen, was submitted to the different facsceptable to the champion.

Included in the list of officials sub-Rixey. mitted by Kearns as acceptable to Dempsey were Bill Brown of New York.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS GIANTS WIN, THEN IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

TE are given to understand that Tex Rickard has turned over to the W Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control the ring government of the Willard-Dempsey fight. At the same time we are regaled with the current squabble over the referee question. Is the boxing board in control or isn't it? If Rickard's contention is correct and Major Tony Biddle and his confreres really have been given the power to arrange all the ring details, why the referee controversy? It is rather a peculiar situation, which is peculiar and unsettled simply because the officials of the boxing board passed up an excellent opportunity to make their body a real national asso-ciation with actual powers. Rickard sent the board word that Willard, Dempsey and he had agreed to leave the question of naming a referee and other officials, including two judges, if the board thought it wise to have such assistants to the third man in the ring. Instead of making the most of ominate as the American League team this golden opportunity and seizing immediately on the chance to become mandatory over boxing and naming the referee and the other officials, the boxing board temporized and dodged what it evidently regarded as too great a responsibility. It sent Rickard a list of eligible referees, told him that it would leave the question of judges to him and the fighters, and succeeded in muddling and complicating the situation worse than ever. Now we are told it behooves the fighters to agree on the referee. Both men are opposed to having two judges. . Willard is firm for Rickard himself as referee and it looks very much as if the promoter, in spite of his firm resolution to the contrary, will be forced to do as he did in the Jeffries-Johnson fight and go into the ring to protect his own investment. The situation is a severe-indictment of the boxing board. It seems to have fallen down on every big opportunity and if it is to be of real service it will have to change its tactics and decide that it means to stand for something. We want to add that some of the men on the board will have to change their ways toward the press and drop that holler than thou attitude. A little pep. gentlemen, and loads and loads of gumption.

Leonard Would Not Do as a Referee.

We note that Benny Leonard has been suggested as a compromise andidate to referee the Willard-Dempsey affair. We do not expect that Leonard will be the man. In the first place we do not think he would accept hit harvest was a whole flock of extra the job, and in the second place we are quite sure that neither Willard nor base clouts. The terrific bombardment he job, and in the second place we are quite sure that neither Willard nor Dempsey will want him. Willard is determined to have either Rickard or of Barnes gave the Dodgers a 9 to 3 Jack Weish and Dempsey would not want a champion, with a champion's point of view, to act as the referee. Much as we admire Leonard as a boxer we do not think that it would wise to have him or any other man not thoroughly experienced as a referee to go into the ring with the big men. The job calls for the best referee in the business and no other man will do, no matter what his reputation as a boxer, butcher, baker or candlestick maker. We would not like opposition against the Yankees than have to see even Rickard himself take the job.

Willard is being criticised for his attitude as regards the referee. the Athletics in the last two days. If Mack can see the foundations of a new contender in his present aggregation he is a cheerful optimist.

Willard is being criticised for his attitude as regards the referee. There is little question that with a championship at stake Willard is justified in insisting on every safeguard. But he must not adopt an unreasonable attitude.

Stars Say Dempsey Will Win and Then Reverse Decision. Yesterday was Jack Dempsey's birthday. He was twenty-four. In the tope that The Astrologer might give us some really reliable dope on the challenger's chances against Willard we got into touch with the star gazer and asked him to consult his astral lore. Finally he emitted the information that any person born on June 24 would have a fortunate year marked by very profitable changes and pleasant travel; would become prominent puband earn great fame. He also added that this ought to be a good year for lemons and other citrus fruit and lawyers. This horoscope would make it look as if Dempsey were due for the heavyweight championship, though we do not like that-little sneaker about "pleasant travel." That Roger Peckinpaugh also had a de-lightful time. He further inflated his batting average by hitting 1999. In five times up Roger whacked two singles, drew two passes and made a sacrifica might mean a lot of things." A boxer who was knocked out once told us

Peckinpaugh Continues Sensation in Batting LOSE TO DODGERS

Poger Peckinpaugi of the Yankees yesterday continued to be the batting sensution of the major leagues. The local captain had a perfect day at the but, and increased his average nine politics to 339. Vesich gained six points and climbed into a the with Cobb for second place. The engagement yesterday was reckinpaugh's thirteenth successive game in which he hit safety.

In the National League Cravath lost twelve points, but with 400 still holds a big lead over southworth of the Pirates and Young of the Giants. The batting leaders follow: Griffith's 5th Hit in Second, Is Homer With Bases Full -Scores, 4-2, 9-3. By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD.

Down East among the horsemen there s an old adage. "The hotter the day the hotter the racing." Paraphrasing the old turf axiom and giving it a baseball twist, "The hotter the day the hotter twist. The hotter the day the hotter the hitting" holds just as true, Leon Cadore, erstwhile Lieutenant in Col. Bili Hayward's regiment, and Jess Barnes will attest to the truth of it. So will the 18,000 fans in whose ears the roar of base hits rang at Ebbets Field yesterday. In six innings of the first game of the double header the Giants fell upon Ca-

Just when Newark thought it had the game with Toronto won yesterday after-noon at Harrison Field the Maple Leafs organized a rally and soon had the con-test on ice. The Toronto batsmen ham-mered out three runs in that round and took the game by 5 to 4.

Herche, the Toronto pitcher, won his own game. In the ninth, with the bases filled, Herche slammed out a two base hit and scored two counters. Newark outhit the Leafs by 14 to 6, but the Toronto hits were inserted in the proper places, while the Newark nafeties for the most part was wasted. The score:

was a handicap affair.

The Piping Rock play was particularly brilliant. The team beat the Rock-away four 11% goals to 10.

Along the side lines were former stars of international games, including Henry P. Whitney and Major Thomas Hitchcock, whose sons, C. V. Whitney and "Tommie" Hitchcock, the ace who escaped from a German prison, played on the winning team with L. E. Stoddard and J. Watson Webb, both eight goal men.

Rockaway received a handicap of five goals and scored five. Piping Rock hit goals and scored five. Piping Rock hit goals and scored five. Piping Rock hit goals will be plicated by Herche 1 wild pitch Herche. Passet bail Madden. Winning pitcher—Herche Lossing pitcher—Shea.
